In the G.O. cited, Government sanctioned the opening of a ceramic training centre at Harpanahalli in the Bellary District for a period of one year in the first instance and the appointment of one Demonstrator, one skilled potter and two unskilled workmen. The scheme included the training of four potters for a period of four months at a time at the centre in improved and uptodate methods of pottery and toy manufacture and the payment to them of stipends. A Demonstrator was appointed and he joined the centre on 6-4-1944 afternoon. The skilled and unskilled workers have been entertained.

2. The centre commenced working from 15-6-1944 after getting the necessary equipment. It is located in a temporary shed erected by the local Panchayat Board. Two batches of trainees have so far been trained in the centre. The articles produced at the centre--glazed pottery and jars--are reported to be not only good quality but also in a good demand in the taluk. The Deputy Registrar of Co-operative Societies has taken samples of to the Central Stores at Bellary. The Secretary of the Ceded Districts Economic Development Board who inspected the centre recently has reported that the centre is doing good work and deserves to be continued.

3. At present 4 potters are being trained for 4 months at a time. Experience has shown that the duration of the training is not quite sufficient to give full training to the potters. ~~It is to extend to six months~~. The facilities available at the centre permit of an increase in the number of trainees by 50% and in view of this I suggest that the number of stipendiary trainees be increased to six at a time.

4. In the circumstances, I request that Government will be pleased to sanction the continuance of the training centre at Harpanahalli with the existing staff of One Demonstrator, one skilled worker and two unskilled workers, for a further period of one year from 7-4-1945. I also request that sanction may be accorded for the training of six stipendiary potters at a time and the extension of the period of training from four to six months.
